

BEHIND THE SCENES

Summer Golf Sponsor Reception – Tuesday, June 28, 2011

The Arts Center said thanks to the sponsors of the 2010 Tee Off For the Arts fundraising golf tournament recently, with a reception held in the Heritage Room. Attendees included: Bob Cherichella, Torrey Glass, David Crowell, Heather Cherichella; Ed & Kymberley Bigda, Tom & Valerie Ditzig; Joe & Trish Olshefski and Jeanne Garifallou.

Big Top Art Camp – August 1-5, 2011 – During this camp, students created 2-D and 3-D artworks in a variety of mediums all inspired by a trip to the circus. Clown drawings and masks were among the favorite activities.

Mixed Up Masterpieces – July 18-22, 2011 – This camp presented the elements of art and design through a detailed look at some of the masters such as Henri Matisse, Georgia O'Keefe, and Frank Lloyd Wright.

Heritage Sponsor Announcement

Thursday, June 16, 2011 – Arts Center president and CEO Kathleen Bateson, far right, met SC Gov. Nikki Haley at a recent event announcing the new Heritage Golf Tournament sponsor. Bateson was introduced to the governor by her in-laws, from left, Carole and Bill Haley. Bill is the executive vice president of Resort Rentals of Hilton Head Island and a former board trustee.

Kids n' Clay Camp

July 5-8 & 15, 2011

Students ages 6-12 learned how to use clay as an expressive medium while attending this Summer's popular Kids n' Clay camp.

Theatre Camps

July 11-15/25-29, 2011

During these fun-filled weeks campers experienced a mini-production and were not only the cast, but were also the script writers, production crew, and designed the set, props, and costumes, too!

BEHIND THE SCENES

Smokey Joe's Sneak Preview

Thursday, June 16, 2011 – Several Arts Center patrons got a sneak peak at the summer musical, Smokey Joe's Café. Visitors included (top, from left) Joy and Basil Sandler, Pam and Dave Schofield; Sue Noble, Sue Creighton, Hank Noble and Donice Krepps.

Smokey Joe's Café Behind the Scenes

Monday, June 13, 2011 – The Arts Center held its Behind the Scenes event, giving patrons a look at Smokey Joe's Café. Attendees included (from left) Bill & Marilyn Healy, Bill & Phyllis Westerman and Penny & Bo Pearson.

Musical Kazoocicles

Wednesday, July 13, 2011

Lowcountry artist Amos Hummell led this wacky workshop where participants crafted a kazoosaphone, a one-of-a-kind musical instrument from recycled materials!

STRIVE Workshop

June 21, 2011

Special Needs students participating in the STRIVE summer camp program were invited to the Arts Center for a puppetry workshop with Yostie Ashley.

Smokey Joe's Café Opening Night

Friday, June 24, 2011 – Loyal patrons helped celebrate the opening of Smokey Joe's Café at the Arts Center this summer. Guests to the opening night reception included, from top left, Linda & Ray Moloney, Anthea & Alan Crogono, Lois & Roy Plekenpol; Frank & Rosemary Kimball, Sue & Bill Creighton; Mac Raczkiwicz, Jeni & Bill Bilek, Yola Raczkiwicz.

BEHIND THE SCENES

POP! Performing Arts Camp – June 27- July 1, 2011

Campers enjoyed working with the cast from the Arts Center's summer production of Smokey Joe's Café and dance teacher Patti Mauer while exploring American music and dance in the 50's and 60's.

POP! Visual Arts Camp – June 27- July 1, 2011

In this camp we honored the Arts Center's summer production of Smokey Joe's Café exploring American art of the 50's and 60's.

Take the Stage! Performing Arts Camp

July 18-22, 2011 – This week-long camp exposed children to a variety of performing arts methods such as dance, theater, and music.

Arts Center Interns – Summer 2011 – This summer the Arts Center hosted two interns. Paige Klasing is studying Education at Wake Forest University and Sawyer Dills is pursuing a degree in Sport and Entertainment Management at University of South Carolina.

Palm Bark Puppets

Tuesday, June 21, 2011

In this workshop with Yostie Ashley, participants used native palm bark to create a fish marionette to tell their undersea stories.

Summer ArtStart

Summer 2011 – These classes are designed to help artists ages 2-5 develop fine motor skills and encourage creativity while creating one-of-a-kind artworks.

Lions Club Peace Posters Reception

Tuesday, Sept. 13, 2011

To kick off the new season of student exhibits, the Arts Center hosted the Peace Posters collection, courtesy of Olive and Manuel Holland. These posters represent winning entries from the annual poster competition, which is open to youngsters age 11-13 from around the world who create works of art with the theme Visions of Peace.