

EDUCATIONAL FIELD TRIPS

In 1996, the Arts Center launched its field trip series to provide arts experiences in a variety of visual and performing arts disciplines.

Our live professional performances and exhibitions provide exciting educational opportunities that enhance the goals of community educators by offering insight into a world of artistry and culture.

Arts Center of Coastal Carolina is a 1992 founding member of the Kennedy Center Partners in Education Program.

AMADEUS

OCT 11, 2018 • 10:30AM • $10
APPROX 2.5HRS • GRADES: 9-12

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, a rowdy young prodigy, arrives in Vienna, the music capital of the world – and he’s determined to make a splash. Awestruck by his genius, court composer Antonio Salieri has the power to promote Mozart’s talent or destroy his reputation. Seized by obsessive jealousy he begins a war with Mozart, with music, and ultimately, with God. Classical music is woven throughout this stunning theatrical experience.

VIRGINIA REPERTORY THEATRE PRESENTS THE FROG PRINCE

NOV 5, 2018 • 10 & 11:30AM • $7
APPROX 1HR • GRADES: PRE-K-5

When a spoiled but lonely princess drops her golden ball into a wishing well, a noble frog retrieves it in exchange for her promise of friendship. The princess breaks her promise, and must face the music – in the process learning a valuable lesson about true friendship. This colorful, humorous adaptation of the classic fairy tale was first recorded by the Brothers Grimm. Virginia Repertory Theatre’s beautiful production of The Frog Prince showcases an amphibian ensemble created by internationally acclaimed puppet master Terry Snyder.

AL SIMMONS SOUNDS CRAZY

MAR 19, 2019 • 10 & 11:30AM • $7
APPROX 1HR • GRADES: K-8

Get ready for Al Simmons inventive musical comedy! This Juno Award-winner demonstrates, with hilarious results, how the various instruments of a symphony orchestra make music. Along the way, principles of sound waves, vibrations, resonance, and pitch are clearly explained as Al plays his bizarre homemade versions of stringed, woodwind, brass and percussion instruments. In typical Al-style, he manages to coax music out of tin cans, straws, garden hoses, plastic bottles, coat hangers, and even a turkey baster.

BALLET MEMPHIS

JAN 18, 2019 • 11AM • $8
APPROX 1HR • GRADES: 1 - 12

For more than 30 years, Ballet Memphis has created, presented and taught ballet in a way that celebrates the human spirit. It is a company that reflects their audience – beautifully diverse in mind, body and soul. Their highly acclaimed, original repertoire speaks to the cultural significance of Memphis, shared with audiences around the globe and at home.

The company will perform “I Am” at the Arts Center, a collection of four identity-focused dance pieces, inspired by the universality of mankind, called by Commercial Appeal “a triumph!”
