Bobby 1/2

BOBBY- (Stepping downstage) I'm Robert Charles Joseph Henry Mills III, that's my real name too. I come from upstate New York, near Buffalo, I can't remember the name of the town... I've blocked it out. I was born 25 years ago. (Back to line)

BOBBY- Know how I turned out as heavenly as I did. See, when I was five years old I was playing jacks—and the car fell down on my head.

ZACH- Bobby, are you gonna do a routine?

BOBBY- No, no... moving right along, moving right along...let's see... Do you wanna know about all the wonderful and exciting things that have happened to me in my life? Or do you want the truth?

ZACH- I'll take the truth.

BOBBY- Well to begin with, I come from this quasi-middle-upper or upper-middle class, family type home. I could never figure out which but it was real boring. I mean, we had money—but no taste. You know the kind of house—Astroturf on the patio? Anyway my mother had a lot of card parties and was one of the foremost bridge cheaters in America. My father worked for this big corporation. They used to send him out into the field a lot—to drink. Better that they to find him lying on his office floor...But he was ok... I was the strange one.

ZACH- How strange?

BOBBY- Real, real strange. I used to love to give garage recitals. BIZZARE recitals. This one time I was doing Frankenstein as a musicale and I spray painted this kid silver—all over. They had to rush him to the hospital. Cause he had that think when your pores can't breathe...
